LEVY VIRTUAL SCHOOL

Application for Virtual School Hardship Computer Equipment and Internet Access Scholarship

Only students who qualified for free lunch status in 2010-2011 and will qualify in 2010-2011 are eligible to receive this scholarship.

Directions to Complete:

Parents are to complete this application for a Virtual School Hardship Computer Equipment and Internet Access Scholarship only if the student would benefit from participating in the Virtual School Program and the parent has no other means to provide the necessary computer equipment or internet access. Please understand that the loan of equipment and internet access is highly filtered and restricted. It is not for other family members to have internet access. It is to assist students who have no other means or support to obtain this ability and for the parent who serves as the teacher's assistant. By submitting this application, the parent gives permission for the district to verify employment, salary, and previous internet access.
